

County clerks OPRA responses:

One response from the clerk's office informed me that they would have to impose a special service fee relative to the request for all purchase orders issued during 2004-2006 pertaining to the vendor "Consultedge, Inc." It is estimated that an intern (hourly wage $8) will require seven (7) hours to retrieve and compile the documents which would be responsive to your request, for a total fee of $56.00.

The relevant proposal and resolution are now available. The contract is in storage; one box will need to be retrieved and the cost for same is $5.50. Additional time is needed to complete the balance of the request. We expect to have a response prepared by Friday, October 6, 2006.

Another response informed me that my request for all internal and external correspondence with Consultedge and any consultants involved with the replacement of the telephone system the County will be imposing a special service fee to process this request. An administrative secretary in the Division of Information Technologies (hourly wage $36.19) will require approximately five (5) hours to retrieve and compile the documents which would be responsive to your request, for a total fee of $180.95. A legal intern (hourly wage $14.00) in the Office of County Counsel will require approximately three (3) hours to review the documents for any necessary redactions, as required by law, for a total fee of $42.00. The total special service fee is $222.95.

Regarding your request for vouchers and contracts pertaining to consultants involved with the replacement of the telephone system, 10 boxes would need to be retrieved from archives. The archive fee is $55.00 and the boxes will be retrieved upon receipt of same. The State contract relative to this request is also available for purchase or inspection. The records comprise fifty six (56) pages and the cost to purchase same is $21.50. It may also be accessed on the New Jersey State website using the following link:
<http://www.state.nj.us/treasury/purchase/noa/contracts/t1316.shtml>.

The resolution applicable to this request was provided during your visit today, and there are no bid solicitation packages to provide relative to same.

Upon receipt of the fees as outlined above, the county will process your OPRA request. Thank you for your patience and cooperation while we worked to fill your OPRA request.
