Dear Sir or Madam:

This is in response to your request of February 17, 2006. We are aware that the organization is required to provide copies for you, and we will pursue that issue. However, we are unable to provide you with information regarding any possible investigation or penalties that may be assessed against an organization.

Your correspondence indicates that you previously submitted Form 4506-A, Request for Public Inspection or Copy of Exempt Organization IRS Form, to help with your immediate need for inspection of the organization's Form 1023.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Cindy WeMcCott
