

UNION COUNTY SHERIFF

Ralph Froehlich, Sheriff

Dear Friend:

Thirty years ago, I was an Elizabeth Police Lieutenant with no intention of getting into elected office. I was a cop and that's what I always wanted to be. But I was drawn into public life for the same reasons I became a police officer: I saw things in my community that needed to be made better and I wanted to work to make it so.

I now have the incredible privilege of being in my 10th term as an elected law enforcement official. I still believe that one should hold elected office in order to do what is right, not just what is expected or politically expedient. I am proud to be serving alongside a group of men and women who share this belief-- Column B Democratic Freeholders Al Mirabella, Deborah Scanlon, and my former law enforcement colleague, Chester Holmes.

Together with this dynamic Freeholder Board, we have worked on issues important to my heart and to the security of our communities, such as:

- Funding the Prosecutor's crackdown on gangs and drugs. The Democratic Freeholder Board has fully supported the Prosecutor in his crack down on crime.
- Providing millions to Union County's municipalities in grants for training and equipment for detecting weapons of mass destruction and other emergency management needs.
- Providing radios in Union County's schools to give a direct line of communication between schools and police and ensure the safety of our children.
- Opening the new Public Safety Building in Westfield. The 51,209-square-foot building, which was named in my honor, includes an advanced crime lab, a modern communications center and an emergency operations center.
- Holding countywide emergency management drills in the areas of weapons of mass destruction and biological terrorism.

These are just a few of the areas that the Column B Democratic Freeholder team has concentrated on in making Union County a safer place for our families. As a result of these ongoing efforts and other factors, crime has decreased by ten percent over the past few years in Union County.

On Tuesday, November 7th, I hope you'll join me in pulling the lever for the team that has made our safety their highest concern—and vote for the Column B Democratic Freeholder team of Mirabella, Scanlon and Holmes.

Sincerely,

Ralph Froehlich
